Diagnostic and Treatment of Deep Venous Thrombosis and Deep Venous Chronic Obstruction

for Phlebologists, Dermatologists, Radiologists, Interventional Radiologists, Cardiologists, Pulmonologists, Surgeons, and Vascular Surgeons

Kaunas, Lithuania

November 13 - 14

2015

Dear colleagues and friends,

With great pleasure I would like to invite you to Kaunas, Lithuania.

On behalf of the Baltic Society of Phlebology, the Lithuanian Association of Endovascular Specialists, and the Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, I have the honour of welcoming you to Kaunas for the 13th International Master Course of Phlebology.

The theme of this event is Diagnostic and Treatment of Acute Thrombosis and Chronic Obstruction of Deep Veins.

In recent years, significant progress has been achieved in the field of interventional treatment of Deep Vein Thrombosis and Deep Vein Obstruction. This conference will focus on a combination of different technologies and methods of diagnostic, treatment of Deep Vein Thrombosis and Chronic Obstruction of Deep Veins, and life case presentations.

We are delighted to welcome invited lecturers Dr. Tomasz Urbanek (Poland), former President of the Polish Society of Phlebology, Dr. Matteo Stefanini (Italy), Dr. Radoslaw Pietura (Poland), and Dr. Torsten Fuss (Switzerland).

I hope we will find answers for various questions about the interventional treatment of venous obstructive syndromes and implement these answers into our daily practice.

I also hope you will enjoy the hospitality of our city, Kaunas.

I look forward to seeing you all during the 13th International Master Course in Phlebology and welcoming you to Kaunas.
